

Cat Lake Friends of Animush Volunteer Application Form

Thank you for your interest in volunteering with Cat Lake Friends of Animush (FOA). We are a registered charitable organization based in southwestern Ontario with the aim to improve mental health in fly-in, First Nations communities through improved animal welfare. There is a well-documented link between healthy communities and how animals are treated. The ultimate goal of our clinics is to promote understanding between people and their pets which can lead to better human relationships.

Please complete this application form to help us learn more about your qualifications, skills, and availability. Your commitment to helping communities and animals in need is highly appreciated.
